F. Rhoné
BELLEVUE AND ALLIED HOSPITALS
OFFICE, GENERAL MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT
FIRST AVENUE AND 26TH STREET
NEW YORK

NEW YORK, N.Y.
SEP 8 PM
1917
STA. F

C

U.S. POSTAGE
2 CENTS

J. M. Freedman,
c/o Post Quartermasters Office,
U. S. Marine Corps Reserve,
Brooklyn Navy Yard
Brooklyn N.Y.

Sept. 7-18.

Precious Hanky: —

Seems so strange that I shan't see you to-night. Have accustomed myself to see you every other night and I feel so miss seeing you this evening. Will you miss me? Shall be thinking of you all the time.

Got my check yesterday and went out in the evening to buy a pair of shoes.

Couldn't be suited so I'll wait a few days for a new stock to come in.
But I did buy something else that I needed rather badly. Three guesses!

Didn't get a letter
this morning but expect there will be one, when I get home this evening,
from my sweetheart.
But, if there isn't!

Everlovingly,
Frances.